GREAT COMMISSION

MATTHEW 28:16-20

Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I will be with you always, to the very end of the age." "NIV"

HEAVEN HOLDS ALL TO ME

By JIM BILL McINTEER

ONE CAN HARDLY THINK of Christian songs in our generation without gratefully recalling the labors of Tillit S. Teddlie.

In 1903, at 18 years of age, he confessed his faith in Jesus as God's Son and was baptized. A short time later, wearing his jumper overalls, he paused under the shade of a hickory tree, about 75 feet from the spot where he had made his confession of faith. His mind was filled with the glory of the gospel he had embraced. A two-inch pencil and a frazzled envelope were in his pocket. On this envelope he wrote the chorus of that famous song.

He first wrote the chorus in 6/8 time, then changed it to 6/4 to "slow it down" a bit. Highly significant to him are the instructions he included with the song: "Not too fast."

In 1914 it was first published, and from then until now, Christians everywhere have been blessed with words:

*Heaven holds all to me, Brighter its glory will be;
Joy without measure will be my treasure: Heaven holds all to me.*

*Earth holds no treasures but perish with using,
However precious they be; yet there's a country to which I am going; Heaven holds all to me.*

Out on the hills of that wonderful country, Happy, contented and free, Loved ones are waiting and watching my coming: Heaven holds all to me.

*Why should I long for the world and its sorrows, When in that home o'er the sea, Millions are singing the wonderful story?
Heaven holds all to me.*

A debt of gratitude is due this tremendously talented song writer who gave us more than 100 inspiring songs from his prolific pen. As a boy he worked in the berry farms of Golden, Texas. As a man he worked in pulpits throughout the land.

From "Heaven Holds All to Me" to "May This My Glory Be," Tillit S. Teddlie has made the journey of life more meaningful for us all.
